Article V

Miscellaneous Provisions

§ 250-37 Fines and penalties for offenses.

[Amended 9-17-2013 by L.L. No. 3-2013]

- A. Every person convicted of a traffic infraction, as set forth in a parking summons, violation notice, appearance ticket and/or other accusatory instrument, for a violation of any provision of this chapter which is not a traffic violation under any provision of the Vehicle and Traffic Law of the State of New York shall, for a first conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or by imprisonment for not more than 15 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; for a second such conviction within 18 months thereafter, such person shall be punished by a fine of not more than $200 or by imprisonment for not more than 45 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; upon a third or subsequent conviction within 18 months after the first conviction, such person shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment of not more than 90 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
- B. A failure to respond to a traffic infraction by the date and time of the assigned court date reflected on the face thereof will be deemed an admission of liability and a default judgment may be entered accordingly, and, given that such failure to respond will result in additional costs to the Village and the Court and the expenditure of other resources, the Village and/or the Court, in its discretion, may establish and/or impose penalties in addition to the fines established for violations of traffic infractions in this chapter and elsewhere. Such penalties may be assessed by the Court having jurisdiction over such traffic infractions as authorized in the normal course of judicial business and shall be established by resolution of the Village Board and included in a fee schedule to be maintained by the Village Clerk. Where a parking summons, violation notice, appearance ticket or other accusatory instrument (collectively "ticket") for a violation of any provision of this chapter which is not a traffic violation under any provision of the Vehicle and Traffic Law of the State of New York is not responded to by the defendant by the appearance date on the notice, the fine to be imposed shall be increased as follows:

- Where there is no response to the ticket for forty-five (45) days from the ticket issuance date the fine shall be doubled.
- Where there is no response to the ticket for sixty (60) days from the ticket issuance date, the fine shall be tripled.
- Where there is no response to the ticket for ninety (90) days from the ticket issuance date, the fine shall be quadrupled.

Section 2.     Effective Date

This local law shall take effect twenty-one (21) days after filing with the Secretary of State.
