Apples Arrive at the Farmers Market

What: Ossining's Down to Earth Farmers Market Fall has arrived and we are ready to celebrate apples! This weekend, stop by the Manager's tent to sample apples from our farmers and then shop for your favorites. If you like your apples with a kick, visit the Neversink Spirits stand to sample their newly released batch of local apple brandy. They make NY gin and whiskey too. And, of course, you can look to Meredith's Bread for apple pie (and pumpkin too!). The Ossining Arts Council will be at our Community Table to talk about their upcoming studio tours and P.E.O. International will talk about their philanthropy work by and for women. We will have music at the market by Pleasant Bud from 10am-12pm. Have you picked up one of our new Ossining Farmers Market reusable shopping bags yet? Stop by the manager's table to learn the story of these "bags full of good news." They're $5 each and $1 from the sale of each bag goes to Green Ossining. Greentree Textiles will be at the market to collect old clothes, shoes and bedding.

When: Saturday from 8:30AM-1PM

Where: Near Market Square at the corner of Spring & Main Streets, Ossining, NY

Contact: dacotah@downtoearthmarkets.com

PROHIBITION IN OSSINING – WHAT WAS IT LIKE?

What: Miguel Hernandez, historical raconteur, will fill us in with the real stories of those wild years of Prohibition in Ossining. How many speakeasies were tucked around the village? How strict were the local police during this period? What was the role of the churches in the village? To get in the spirit of the times try to evoke the look of the period with maybe a fedora for the guys and a head band with long pearls for the women. Hosted by the Ossining Lions Club. The buffet dinner is $25 and there is a cash bar.

When: Thursday, September 28, starting at 7:00 PM

Where: Ossining Elks Club, 118 Croton Ave; Ossining, New York

Ossining Second Saturday Jazz and The Uptown Room present MARY MANCINI & MARIO TACCA in Concert

What: Internationally acclaimed vocal artist Mary Mancini and award-winning accordionist Mario Tacca make beautiful music together. Married for many years, they have been featured in the New York Times, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram (TX), and the NY Journal News, and have performed in a variety of venues around the world. Able to sing in eight different languages, Mary draws from a deep repertoire reservoir. She is adept at pop music, show tunes, operatic arias, and sacred music and has received worldwide acclaim. The Journal News calls Mario "one of the pre-eminent Accordion Virtuosi in the world" and the New York Times writes that he makes the instrument "sound like a gift from heaven." Endearing themselves to audiences around the world, Mary and Mario are performers whose Music truly comes From the Heart.

Free Documentary Screening :DARE TO BE (sport of women's rowing and the human spirit)

What: Dare to Be is a documentary film on the sport of women's rowing and the human spirit. It follows a series of rowers ranging from novice girls to women training for the Olympics, as they overcome obstacles and seek greatness. We learn along their journey that greatness can come in many forms and should not always be measured by traditional concepts of success, but rather by individual triumphs. It essentially suggests that athletes can define what success looks like to them - not coming in last place, beating a rival, medaling for the first time, qualifying for nationals, or winning an Olympic gold medal. Panelists include : Matt Lagle- Emmy Award Winner, Owner, Boonedog Video Producer, Dare to Be; Adam Reist- Emmy Award Winner, Creative Director Coastline Pictures Director, Dare to Be; and Abbie Young- Competitive Teams Director Chelsea Piers, CT, Four Year Varsity Rower Yale University, Rower, Dare to Be.
