

Want to get a high school equivalency diploma?
Let us help you plan, study, and get the diploma so you can get a better job, go to college, and help your family.

Call or email TASC Connect! for free help at your library.
914.231.3264 or TASC@wlsmail.org

The new NY State exam for a high school equivalency diploma is called the TASC - Test Assessing Secondary Completion (formerly the GED). The exam is free and can be taken in English and Spanish.
Passed parts of the exam already? You have until the end of 2015 before those scores expire. Find out more!
This program is supported by funds from New York State Education Department, Division of Library Development.

Take the first step toward your goal. Attend an Orientation to find out about:

- Ways you can get a diploma.
- Classes and tools that can help you.
- Assessing your skills and outlining a study plan.

We can even connect you with a tutor who will provide personalized support. Already in a class? GREAT! We'll help you know more faster!

Monthly Orientations at Five Libraries:

White Plains Public Library (100 Martine Avenue) 1st Monday of the month
6:30-8pm

Ossining Public Library (53 Croton Avenue) 1st Thursday of the month 6:30-8pm

Mount Vernon Public Library (28 South First Avenue) 1st Saturday of the month
10:30am-12pm

New Rochelle Public Library (1 Library Plaza) 1st Saturday of the month 10:30am-12pm

Yonkers Public Library, Grinton I. Will Branch, (1500 Central Park Avenue)
4th Monday of the month 6:00pm - 7:30pm

Get in touch! Call or email—914.231.3264 or TASC@wlsmail.org